(The name of this particular species is California Pipevine Swallowtail because it mainly feeds on the California Pipevine plant featured. I'm always on the lookout for interesting species of butterflies and moths to use in design work, and I remember reading the story of a man (who happened to be an aquatic biologist) in California, rescuing the species from near extinction by creating a butterfly enclosure in his garden. They could feed and mate and do other butterfly-related activities without fear of predation. It also concentrated the population so they didn't have to travel as far to reach a potential mate. The butterflies themselves are absolutely gorgeous.)

MOORCROFT Large 23cm VASE (Shape No 216/8) IN THE WEEPING WILLOW DESIGN By Designer Helen Dale. Limited Edition Of Only 50 Produced This One Being No 26 R.R.P. £895.00.

(Helen has set out to exact the true spirit of willow trees set in a flat, rural landscape. There are no accurately-fashioned branches: no drooping or hanging leaves, but simply the outline of willow trees standing in silence with dignity. The effect of Weeping Willow is atmospheric, with each tree occupying its territory to create an effect not unlike a sea of tents capped with wispy clouds, blue sky and a watery, round sun. Small groups of birds take flight, as black silhouettes set against the darkening night's sky.)

(Although he is born to be a companion, the Cavalier King Charles Spaniel retains the sporty nature of his spaniel ancestors. If he is not sitting on a lap or getting a belly rub, nothing makes him happier than to attempt to retrieve an item of interest, in this case a Christmas stocking. Four varieties, inspired by companions she once knew, (Toby, Beasley, Louis and Jaffa,) march proudly around Vicky's cheerful festive design. Their colouration is no accident as Vicky explains that this design features a tricolour, a solid ruby, a Blenheim and a black and tan Cavalier King Charles Spaniel, all with dainty fairy lights dotted above.)

MOORCROFT 18cm VASE (Shape No 03/7) "WHO GOES THERE" Signed By Designer Anji Davenport.R.R.P. £595.00.

(Summer or Winter, night or day, if you sit Moorcroft designer, Anji Davenport, in the corner of a field, something akin to pure magic will emerge from her sketch book. This time, Anji's fields are covered in snow: a winter sun spreads streaks of cold blue, amber and yellow across a distant village and rolling white hills. The air is cold, and the scream of a distant vixen shatters the silence. The designer's black cat cares nothing for the foxes, the chill of the sky or the white snow. Everything she sees is crystal clear. A wooden post and rail garden fence protects her sanctuary and her retreat. A fox is prowling past with more of its family slinking quietly across the snow in the distance. To the black cat, the fox is a mere object of curiosity, not fear. This is nature in the wild, drawn by an artist who is in control of her design and confident in her subject matter. For those familiar with landscapes in winter when warmth has gone into hiding and humans sit by their fires in heated homes, Who Goes There is an atmospheric picture, a scene which many of us will have studied at some time or another in our lives. The designer offers us a generous vase, each turn of which reveals something new.)

MOORCROFT 10.16cm VASE IN THE TALWIN DESIGN (Shape No 402/4) Designed by Nicola Slaney R.R.P. £290.00.

(Nicola Slaney's designs are inspired by the works of Talwin Morris, a turn-of-the-century graphic artist who became influential in Art Nouveau book design, where line, curve and decoration were used to entice the reader. Nicola decided on a colour scheme before she designed the range, knowing that blacks, reds and pinks are synonymous with the style she was trying to recreate. To this she added the very delicate greens and blues to which she is so often drawn.)

Nicola's obvious adoration of the perennial still seeps through today. 'Snowdrops are a flower I've drawn a lot but they're one of my favourites and I really love their simplicity. (With their delightful wisps and tendrils, sweet peas have made a lovely floral subject at Moorcroft for decades and so their reoccurrence was inevitable. Nicola scattered a wild and unkempt cluster of the colourful annual flowers, with delicate tendrils tubelined in green, for the Moorcroft Club's 30th anniversary in 2017. Its popularity was instant and could simply not be ignored. With connoisseurs eager for more, Sweetness makes a very welcome re-appearance in 2018. Nicola has used a pure white background to her design and as a result her sweet peas appear bright, cheerful and tempting.)

MOORCROFT Large 28cm VASE (Shape No 161/11) "DERNGATE" (Numbered Edition No 62) Designed By Emma Bossons FRSA. R.R.P. £445.00

(Perhaps Mackintosh's most iconic design in 78 Derngate is to be discovered in the hall/lounge which was designed for entertaining, and was used as a 'public' room. Mackintosh was given a free hand, and designed a stair screen with panels of decorative leaded glass. Yellow was the one colour the colour-blind owner, Bassett-Lowke could see properly, and so it was used in leaded v-shapes which evoke the speed and streamlining he admired in trains.

Mackintosh's decorative scheme diffused the potential gloominess of the room with theatrical drama. The walls, ceiling and woodwork were painted, in his words, a 'velvety black', relieved with a striking stencil scheme, which appears as heavily geometrical trees with chequered trunks, spaced around the walls. The tree concept was an old favourite of Mackintosh's, but the jagged downward triangles and use of strong colours - golden yellow with touches of emerald green, vermillion, blue and petunia – anticipate a new and individual way the decorative arts would change with the arrival of Art Deco in the next decade.

The Derngate vase shape is newly one launched in 2018. Yet this twenty first century shape seems at home in Derngate's early twentieth century hall. A perfect marriage of Moorcroft and Mackintosh working in harmony.)

Nicola's obvious adoration of the perennial still seeps through today. 'Snowdrops are a flower I've drawn a lot but they're one of my favourites and I really love their simplicity. I also love using the blue, white and green colour palette' explains Nicola. The acclaimed designer has now spent over twenty years at Moorcroft.)

(With the unity of sleek Glasgow style and the spirit of romanticism, architect and designer, Charles Rennie Mackintosh (1868-1928), created one of the best examples of an Arts & Crafts interiors ever seen. Rachel has sought inspiration from Mackintosh's designs on several occasions- often drawn to the rose that was his world-renowned signature. Rennie Rose became a beautifully romantic range by Rachel in 2016. It sings of the colours and method of a brilliant designer and the era in which he worked. Two years later, Rachel revisits this design of famous roses for a glorious geometrical arrangement in blues, with black tubelining echoing Mackintosh original linework.)

MOORCROFT 13cm VASE (Shape No 403/5) "YEATS ARMISTICE REMEMBRANCE" VASE (Limited Edition 50 Only This One Being No 49 Signed By Designer Kerry Goodwin R.R.P. £385.00.

(World War I is now remembered through its literature perhaps more than any other art form. William Butler Yeats, widely considered to be among the great poets of the English language, received the 1923 Nobel Prize for Literature. His words within An Irish Airman Foresees His Death, resonates with many. 'I know that I shall meet my fate, somewhere among the clouds above; Those that I fight I do not hate, those that I guard I do not love.' Yeats was deeply moved by the spirit of the pilots of the day, who, time after time, would get back in the cockpit and fly out to meet their fates. With Irish heritage of her own, Kerry created a poppy design as the visual accompaniment to Yeats' prose. Layers of pillar box-red petals gather across a dark background which melts into sky blue, and eventually disappears into the milky white of clouds above.)

MOORCROFT TRAY (Shape No 965) IN THE WINDS OF MARCH DESIGN. By Designer Rachel Bishop BA. R.R.P. £160.00.

(Daffodil designs are almost as old as Moorcroft itself. In truth they stretch back to the days when William Moorcroft was employed by James Macintyre & Co., between 1897 to 1913, and it was during those years that the humble daffodil made its debut as a fine Florianware vase. After that, only a handful of pieces made an appearance. Daffodils did not remerge in Moorcroft design until decades later, largely because of the efforts of its new, young designer, Rachel Bishop. It was in 1995, that Rachel created a ground-breaking design simply called Daffodils. The flower had literally leap-frogged into contemporary Moorcroft, where Daffodils became one of the most successful limited editions of its time. These days, a year does not pass at Moorcroft without a new, stunning and vibrant daffodil design. Unique colouration and shapes convincingly lends the flowers to the Moorcroft style, and every time that Rachel has bestowed her rich pigments and detailed linework on daffodils they have emerged from the kilns with what can only be described as well-earned floral royalty. In Winds of March, more glorious daffodils parade their trumpets against a dramatic, dark background, their petals, which we are so accustomed to seeing as yellow, take on two distinctive colours; a soft, creamy buttermilk and wholesome ochre. All of us will celebrate these cheerful blooms and the designer who has captured them so wonderfully for 25 years after literally resurrecting them from history.)

(Due to the popularity of the 2009 House of Flowers plaque Kerry Goodwin was invited to create a prestige version of her groundbreaking design. While the flowers on the vase remain the same, Kerry has added three additional landscape scenes between the flowers, each with a stylised garden gate. BIG TRAK c1970s/80s.

(BIG TRAK was a programmable electric vehicle created by Milton Bradley in 1979, resembling a futuristic Sci-Fi tank / utility vehicle, possibly for use on the Moon or a Planetoid style environment.[1] The original Big Trak was a six-wheeled (two-wheel drive) tank with a front-mounted blue "photon beam" headlamp, and a keypad on top. The toy could remember up to 16 commands, which it then executed in sequence. There also was an optional cargo trailer accessory, with the U.K. version being white to match its colour scheme; once hooked to the Bigtrak, this trailer could be programmed to dump its payload.)
